Idol Transport Policy Proposal

Your Transport-ONE policy taken to five markets and reconciled line by line — 47 units, R27.96m of fleet and R36m of goods cover, compared on the same terms.

RECOMMENDED SAVING

−R14,656/mo

≈ R175,878 a year

FLEET INSURED

MARKETS APPROACHED

- OWNsurance / Renasa
- King Price / VAPS
- Natsure / Compass
- MiWay
- Transport-ONE (current)

One market is cheaper without giving up cover

You pay R148,370.94 a month to Transport-ONE. Four alternative quotes were reconciled against it on the all-in figure — premium, fees and Sasria together. Only one of them is both cheaper and holds the two lines that matter on a long-haul fleet: third-party liability at R10,000,000 and agreed value on the trucks.

RECOMMENDATION

Move to OWNsurance, underwritten by Renasa — subject to three written confirmations set out on page 05. It is R14,656.51 a month cheaper, keeps third-party liability at R10,000,000 and agreed value on the trucks, and replaces a flat R10,000 excess on every motor claim with no excess at all. Goods-in-transit stays at R2,000,000 a vehicle with driver fidelity, and the first amount payable on a load falls from R50,000 to R5,000.

READ THIS BEFORE THE HEADLINE

The OWNsurance quotation shows “Annual savings R341,670.46” and “Annual savings GIT R163,800.00”. Those are not savings against your current policy. They are your own money going into your own fund, from which your own first claims are paid. What comes back at the end of the year is whatever the claims have not used. Page 04 sets out what that costs you in each case.

FIVE MARKETS ON THE SAME TERMS

What each quote actually covers

Every quote covers the same 47 units at the same sums insured. The differences are in the cover, and on a long-haul fleet three lines decide it: the third-party limit, whether the trucks are settled at agreed or retail value, and how far the goods cover reaches across the border.

COVER LINE	CURRENT	OWNSURANCE	MIWAY	VAPS	NATSURE
Third-party liability Trucks, any one accident.	R10,000,000	R10,000,000	R5,000,000	R2,500,000	R5,000,000

WHY THE TWO CHEAPEST-LOOKING OPTIONS ARE NOT THE ANSWER

MiWay moves every truck from agreed value to retail value, caps all your loads at a single R2,000,000 instead of R2,000,000 a vehicle, doubles the goods excess to R100,000, excludes theft of a load by your own driver, and excludes cover outside South Africa on both the trucks and the goods. King Price costs more than you pay today and cuts third-party liability from R10,000,000 to R2,500,000 — R1,000,000 if the accident involves fire or explosion.

WHAT IT COSTS YOU IN A YEAR, HONESTLY

Of the R133,714.43 a month, R42,122.54 goes into your own fund — R505,470.46 a year — and your first claims are paid from it. What that means in practice: no claims R1,099,103 · R250,000 of claims R1,349,103 · fund fully used R1,604,573. Staying where you are costs R1,780,451 in every one of those cases. Even if the fund is entirely consumed, you are R175,878 a year better off — and you carry no excess.

BEFORE YOU DECIDE

What changes at a claim — and what we still need in writing

WHAT IMPROVES

- ✓ No excess on own damage, theft, hijack or third party, against a flat R10,000 today.
- ✓ Goods excess R50,000 → R5,000 on an Ownsurance-handled claim.
- ✓ Third-party liability held at R10,000,000 — no other quote does this.
- ✓ Agreed value retained on the trucks, so a 2013 MAN settles at its agreed figure.
- ✓ Side-tank spill and clean-up R150,000, and 18 extra non-accident tows.
- ✓ Standing time R2,250 a day to R45,000 while a truck waits for parts.
- ✓ Shortfall cover between agreed and market value on a Sasria or recovery write-off.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

- Twelve-month term. Cancel inside the year and any surplus in the fund is forfeited; a negative balance is payable.
- Goods cover reaches 11 countries, not 16. Angola, Uganda, Rwanda and Kenya fall away.
- Sums insured adjust at renewal, not mid-term.
- Environmental contamination and pollution liability is excluded, as it is on your policy today.
- Public liability R20,000,000 and driver personal accident are not on this quote. We will place both separately so nothing falls away.

THREE CONFIRMATIONS BEFORE ANYTHING IS SIGNED

1 · The claims record. The quotation is expressed to be subject to a satisfactory claims history. Your own disclosure records 58 losses and R2,651,053 over three years. We will not put a figure in front of you that can move afterwards, so we are asking the insurer to confirm in writing that it has rated on that record.

2 · The territory. Written confirmation of the countries the goods cover reaches, and whether Angola, Uganda, Rwanda and Kenya can be added back.

3 · What the tankers carry. Third-party liability is R10,000,000 for general haulage but R5,000,000 for petrol and diesel and R2,500,000 for chemicals. We need to record what actually moves on the tanker trailers so the limit that applies is the limit you were quoted.

A SEPARATE MATTER, AND AN URGENT ONE

Your current policy makes theft cover conditional on an approved, monitored tracking and recovery device on every vehicle over R500,000 — twenty units on your fleet. Every item on your schedule records "Tracking device required: No" and no device is named. Every market we approached imposes the same condition or a stricter one. This is worth resolving whether or not you move insurer.

NEXT STEPS · LET'S PUT THIS IN PLACE

Ready to move — here's how it works

FOUR STEPS TO INCEPTION

1. Confirm the three open points
   Claims-record rating, territory and what the tankers carry — in writing from the insurer before you commit.
2. Give us the go-ahead
   A written instruction to proceed is all we need. We place liability and driver personal accident alongside so nothing lapses.
3. Tracking and telematics
   Fitment surveyed and confirmed to the insurer's specification before inception, so theft and hijack cover is live from day one.
4. Cancellation timed to the day
   Transport-ONE runs monthly. We time the cancellation so there is no gap in cover and no double debit.
