

INSURANCE REVIEW · 8 OCTOBER 2026

Four Options. One Fleet. Five Companies.

Your Bryte fleet renewal set against VAPS, Hollard Trucking and a split placement across three insurers, and a review of what a food group of your size needs insured. The split is cheapest on the vehicles themselves and insures your plant properly; Hollard gives the strongest limits. None of the four covers your loads or your products.

Four options, group by group

Every quotation insures the fleet in groups. The split places each part with a different insurer: cars and bakkies at Old Mutual Insure (through Riskflow), trucks and trailers at King Price (through VAPS) and plant and farm equipment on its own plant policy at Compass (through Bouwen). Bryte has still to add an increase to its trucks, trailers and cars, so its real figure will be higher.

TWO QUOTATIONS TO BE REISSUED

Hollard prints R216,015.33: it divides annual Sasria by ten instead of twelve. True total R212,556.36. VAPS on the split charges Sasria on R15,524,000 (the cars, already covered at Riskflow) and none on the 44 trucks. Corrected, about R4,550 a month more.

WHERE THE SPLIT'S PRICE COMES FROM

On the vehicles it is the cheapest of the four, with the lowest price on your cars and bakkies by far. It is dearest all-in because it buys excess reducers for R55,160 a month (page 4). Every 5% that Bryte adds costs about R8,034 a month.

OUR READING

On limits, Hollard is the strongest: double the third party, five times the fire limit, agreed values and a cash-back fund. The split is cheapest on the vehicles, puts your forklifts, TLBs, tractors and crane on a proper plant policy for the first time, and gives your drivers the best accident cover. Its truck section must first print its third party limits. Neither covers your loads.

THE CONDITIONS THAT DECIDE WHETHER A CLAIM PAYS

CONDITION	VAPS / RENASA	HOLLARD TRUCKING	SPLIT, THREE INSURERS
Tracking for theft cover	Tracking with recovery on every vehicle over R200,000; video telematics on long-haul trucks over R800,000; trailer units over R200,000.	Tracking with recovery on every self-propelled vehicle over R250,000. Two devices on Hilux and Fortuner from 2016, Prado 2018, Land Cruiser 200 2017, Lexus 2018.	Trucks and trailers as VAPS. Cars: no theft cover on Hilux, Fortuner, Land Cruiser, Ranger, D-Max, Quantum, Polo without a self-arming tracker with recovery, fitted within 14 days.
Before cover starts	Signed quotation, application form, 3 years' written claims, bank letter.	Signed proposal form, 3-year claim-by-claim loss history, first premium.	Three sets of paperwork; the plant policy needs its own proposal form and debit order.
Valid until	About 6 November 2026.	21 October 2026 (14 days).	Not printed. Cover starts 1 November 2026.
To be corrected	Name misspelt; "Transport Contractor"; start date already past; one company named.	Sasria arithmetic; increased third party marked "No" but charged; a parking clause cut off; one company named.	Sasria on the trucks; truck third party limits blank; "Distributors" misspelt; one company named; road cover for registered plant.

The excess decides the real price

VAPS charges a percentage of the claim; Hollard a percentage of the vehicle's value, whatever the size of the claim. The split has bought its excess down on trucks and trailers, so you pay a small fixed amount there, at a price.

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR YOU

The split gives the lowest excess on trucks, but it pays R661,925 a year for it. The standard excess on all the claims you declared (R3,843,726, half of it theft) comes to about R496,900 in total. So unless those claims all happened in one year, the reducers cost more than they would return. Tell us which years the claims cover and we will price the split with and without them.

WHY TRACKING MATTERS FOR YOU

R1,876,816 of your declared claims were theft. Under every quotation, a vehicle above the threshold without a working, monitored tracking unit has no theft cover at all. On your fleet that is roughly 90 to 110 vehicles. It should be in place whichever insurer you choose.

FOUR FLEETS, FOUR COUNTS

Bryte has 42 trucks and 30 trailers, VAPS 42 and 32, Hollard 40 and 47, the split 44 and 31. Your new register of 158 items (R67,379,000) settles it: every insurer should now quote on that list.

THE LAW THAT MATTERS MOST

Section 61 of the Consumer Protection Act makes the producer, importer, distributor and retailer each liable for harm caused by unsafe goods, without proof of negligence. Across the group you hold all four roles.

All five companies must be named on every policy. Every motor quotation names one company only.

COVER	WHY IT MATTERS FOR YOU	STATUS
Products liability	Food that makes someone ill, made, imported or sold by any of the five companies.	not yet seen, critical
Product recall and contamination	Withdrawing a contaminated batch from every customer. Usually a separate policy.	not yet seen, critical
Goods in transit	The load on a hijacked truck; spoilage if refrigeration fails on the road.	on none of the four
Deterioration of stock	Maturing cheese and chilled stock when cold rooms or power fail.	to confirm
Machinery breakdown	Pasteurisers, boilers, cold rooms, the bottling line.	to confirm
Business interruption	One cheese factory feeds the whole distribution business.	to confirm
Buildings, contents, stock	Robertsham, Doornkop and Eikenhof.	to confirm
Public and employers' liability	Visitors, contractors and staff at every site.	to confirm
Fidelity, money, accounts receivable	Finance staff, cash, customers buying on credit.	to confirm
Cyber liability	Online ordering and customer data under POPIA.	to confirm

WHAT YOUR NEW REGISTER TELLS US

A fourth site, "Potch"	The tractors, balers, grader, roller and older TLB are listed at "Potch". That site needs to be on your property and liability cover too. Please confirm the address.
R1,380,000 of forklifts	Eight forklifts, stackers and pallet jacks across the Impact, Bandini and Fresco Beverages sites. Bryte insures your special types for third party only, so damage to them is most likely not covered today.
Plant that uses public roads	Two registered Landini tractors, a roller, a TLB and the P&H crane. The plant policy in the split has no road third party cover , so these need it added or must stay on the motor policy.
A horse box and a game trailer	If you keep horses or game, animals in transit and livestock are a separate conversation.

WHY WE RAISE IT IN A FLEET REVIEW

South Africa's 2018 listeriosis outbreak showed how one contaminated product reaches every customer a distributor supplies. A food group's largest single loss is far more likely to come from a product than from a truck, and we have not yet seen any policy that shows this cover is in place.

WHAT WE WILL DO

- 1 Your Bryte schedule
Requested using the letter you signed on 2 October, with the renewal increase and your claims history.
- 2 Find the rest of your cover
Property, liability and recall may sit with another insurer. Tell us who.
- 3 Close the gaps
Products liability and recall, goods in transit and deterioration of stock, priced before anything moves.
- 4 Even the quotations up
All four on your 158-item register, all five companies named, reducers priced both ways, Hollard and VAPS reissued.
- 5 One recommendation, in writing
With every reduction in cover disclosed before you decide.

IF YOU CHOOSE THE SPLIT

Three policies, three debit orders and three claims lines: cars and bakkies through Riskflow (Old Mutual Insure), trucks and trailers through VAPS (King Price), plant through Bouwen (Compass). One broker, us: you report any claim to Elizabeth and we deal with the right insurer. A collision between your own truck and your own tractor would involve two insurers, which we would manage for you.

YOUR RECORD OF ADVICE

Replacing a policy means any reduction in cover must be disclosed to you in writing before you decide. We will list every reduction once we have Bryte's full schedule, before you are asked to sign anything.
