Your Cover, Compared

Three insurers have quoted your school. We have read all three in full. One of them understands that it is insuring a school and prices it that way. The same one has a restriction on your minibuses that has to be corrected before anyone signs anything. This pack shows you both.

BRYTE

R41,360/mo

cheapest, but not rated as a school

KING PRICE · RECOMMENDED

R42,902/mo

R25m liability, teacher and pupil cover

AUTO & GENERAL

R46,795/mo

dearest, and the smallest policy

COVERED

● 21 scholar minibuses

Buildings R91.4m

● Liability

Electronics R1.6m

The cheapest quote has not been rated as a school

Three quotes, all reconciled to the cent. About R5,400 a month separates them. What separates them in cover is larger than that, and it does not run in the same direction as the price.

OUR RECOMMENDATION: KING PRICE, WITH ONE CORRECTION

King Price is the only one of the three whose policy is built for a school. Its business description reads "Schools / swimming schools", its liability limit is R25,000,000, and it writes teacher liability and pupil liability into the cover at the same limit. Bryte's liability section records your industry as "Unspecified". Page 03 sets out what that difference actually buys.

AND THE CORRECTION IT NEEDS, BEFORE ANYTHING IS SIGNED

On every one of its 25 vehicle items King Price prints "Passenger liability: Private and LDV only". Your fleet is 21 Toyota Quantum Sesfikile 15 and 16 seaters, which are minibuses, not private cars and not light delivery vehicles. As written, the R3,000,000 shown against each bus may not respond. We have gone back to King Price to have this removed or confirmed in writing. We are not asking you to decide anything until it is resolved.

WHAT IS STILL OUTSTANDING

We do not yet have your current Alpha schedule (ALPHACOM204975). So this pack tells you how the three quotes compare with each other and what each covers, but not yet whether any of them is an improvement on what you already have. That comparison follows as soon as the schedule reaches us.

What a school is actually sued for

For a school, and for a school for special-needs children in particular, liability is not slips and falls. It is duty of care: what happens between children, and between staff and children. Only one of these three quotes is written for that.

LIABILITY	KING PRICE	BRYTE	AUTO & GENERAL
How your business is described	Schools / swimming schools	Unspecified	Not stated
Public liability limit	R25,000,000	R20,000,000	R5,000,000
Teacher liability Injury to a pupil or another teacher caused by a teacher.	Included, same limit	Not shown	Not shown
Pupil liability Including injury to a pupil caused by another pupil.	Included, same limit	Not shown	Not shown
Professional indemnity Breach of professional duty, wrongful expulsion of a scholar, wrongful arrest, defamation.	R1,000,000	Not shown	Not shown
Legal defence costs	inside the indemnity	R50,000	Not shown
Employers liability	Excluded	Absent	Not selected

WHAT ELSE KING PRICE WRITES IN, AT NO SEPARATE CHARGE

The insured is defined to include the principal, teachers and other staff full and part time, student teachers, the pupils themselves, trustees of the governing body and members of the parent teachers' association. Post-traumatic counselling for a pupil or teacher after a traumatic event, R2,000 a person and R10,000 an event. Cancellation of a special event, educational, cultural or sporting, for weather, non-appearance or illness. A food and drink extension for the tuck shop.

THE ONE GAP ALL THREE SHARE

None of the three includes employers liability. King Price and Auto & General both show it excluded, and it does not appear on Bryte's schedule at all. For a school with teaching and support staff this is worth quoting rather than inheriting, and we have asked for it.

Who is covered if a bus is in an accident

Your fleet is 21 Toyota Quantum Sesfikile 15 and 16 seaters, plus trailers and a bakkie. They carry children with special needs, every school day. Passenger liability is what responds when a passenger is injured.

ON EACH BUS	KING PRICE	BRYTE	AUTO & GENERAL
Passenger liability Injury to the children and staff being carried.	R3,000,000 "Private and LDV only"	R2,500,000 on 23 of 25 items	R2,500,000 on 21 vehicles
Unauthorised passenger liability	R3,000,000 "Private and LDV only"	R2,500,000	Not selected
Contingent liability Responds when a staff member uses their own vehicle on school business.	R3,000,000	.	.

WHY WE ARE RAISING THIS RATHER THAN QUIETLY PRICING IT

A Toyota Quantum Sesfikile is a minibus. It is not a private car and it is not a light delivery vehicle. King Price has printed a passenger liability limit against every one of your buses and then restricted that cover to a class of vehicle you do not operate. The limit looks present on the schedule. On a plain reading it would not answer.

We have seen this exact pattern from this insurer once before, on another client running scholar and commuter transport. It is fixable, and it is the first thing we have asked them to fix.

WHERE THAT LEAVES THE DECISION

If King Price removes the restriction, it is the clear recommendation: the strongest schools liability in the market and passenger liability on the buses, for R1,542 a month more than Bryte. If it refuses, the choice becomes Bryte re-rated as a school, and we will bring you that conversation properly rather than quietly switching horses.

Where the three differ on the rest

SECTION	BRYTE	KING PRICE	AUTO & GENERAL	NOTE
Buildings combined	R91,377,112	quoted	R86,709,378	R4.67m apart
Fire	R9,635,900	quoted	R9,652,789	agree
Office contents	R734,832	quoted	R734,834	agree
Business interruption	R297,000	R297,000	R297,000	identical, and low
Electronic equipment	R1,615,810	R1,615,810	R1,615,900	agree
Theft	R600,000	included	R600,000	agree
Money	R15,000	included	R55,000	A&G best
Accidental damage	R75,000	included	R25,000	Bryte best
Glass	R20,000	Excluded	Not selected	ask King Price
Fidelity	absent	Excluded	Not selected	nobody has quoted it
Roadside assistance	absent	Included	absent	21 buses

THREE THINGS TO CORRECT ON THE PAPERWORK

- 1. The VAT number on the Bryte quote reads 9517532. That is seven digits. A South African VAT number is ten and begins with a 4.
- 2. About ten of the 21 buses carry no registration number on the Bryte schedule. Motor cover on a vehicle that cannot be identified is an argument waiting to happen at a claim.
- 3. Buildings differ by R4,667,734 between Bryte and Auto & General on the same premises. One of them is wrong, and if the policy is short, average applies and a claim pays proportionally.

BUSINESS INTERRUPTION AT R297,000

All three quote the identical figure, which usually means all three copied it from the current schedule rather than calculating it. For a school of this size it is worth checking what it is meant to represent before it is carried across a fourth time.

What happens from here

1 King Price confirms the passenger liability in writing

That the cover responds for Toyota Quantum Sesfikile 15 and 16 seaters on scholar transport, or reissues with the "Private and LDV only" restriction removed. Nothing is presented for signature until this is back.

2 King Price prices employers liability, glass and fidelity

All three are currently excluded on its quote.

3 Bryte re-rates the risk as a school

Its liability section records your industry as "Unspecified", which is why the schools extensions are absent. We want a like-for-like second option, not a generic one.

4 We compare all of it against your current Alpha policy

Schedule ALPHACOM204975. Once we have it we can tell you whether moving is an improvement, which is the question that actually matters.

IN SHORT

King Price at R42,901.67 a month, once the passenger liability restriction is removed. It is R1,542 more than Bryte and it is the only quote written for a school. Auto & General is R3,894 more than King Price and covers less than either.
