Cordiguard Playbook

A guarding company with 25 vehicles, no passenger liability, R1m of public liability, and a R10,000 excess. Santam fixes two of the three inside the premium. The third you have to make them fix.

DOSSIER · CIA-CORDIGUARD-2026 · MEETING THURSDAY 4 SEPTEMBER 2026

The game plan

The saving is real but small: R2,634 as quoted, about R2,180 once you put back the two things Santam quoted smaller. Do not sell this on price. Sell it on the guard in the back of the bakkie, and on the fact that the incumbent's own schedule says nobody has ever insured him.

RUN THE MEETING IN THIS ORDER

1

Open on the passengers. Ask how the guards get to their posts. Then show the Bryte line: "Additional Passenger Liability: No", 25 times, and the FJ Cruiser note, "Passenger Liability is excluded". Then Santam: R2.5m passenger and R2.5m unauthorised passenger on every vehicle, in the premium.

2

Then the excess. 10% min R10,000 today; 5% min R4,000 at Santam. On a R60,000 bump that is R6,000 back per claim. This is the number a fleet owner feels.

3

Then the liability limit, honestly. R1m everywhere, and Santam's memo excludes work away. Tell them you have already sent it back. You are the only person in the room who read that line.

4

Then the corrections list (Play 05). Seven items on the Santam quote, four answers from the client. This shows the work; it is also what protects you on the record of advice.

5

Price last. Say R2,634 as quoted, then say about R2,180 like-for-like and why. A client who catches you rounding up never believes the next number.

THE QUESTION THAT SELLS THE FILE

"How do your guards get to site?"

In the bakkies. And on the current policy, if that bakkie rolls, the guards in the back have no cover. That is the meeting.

▲ BEFORE YOU PRESENT

Send the Santam quote back today for: work away written INTO the public liability, R5m and R10m options, MOT0003 to comprehensive, AD R360k over both sites, the Samsung at R21,000, interests noted, TP R5m, inception 1 October. Validity ends 23 September. A quote with "EXCLUDES WORKAWAY" on it cannot be the final one for a guarding company.

HOLLARD DID NOT RATE THIS FLEET

Hollard's item totals equal Bryte's item totals to the cent on 15 of the 22 items matched: Polo R1,357.52, FJ R3,543.68, Ranger R2,400.43, BMW R5,818.21, Fortuner R2,306.80. The other seven differ by exactly the credit shortfall premium Hollard left out. The R90 "Vehicle Control Management" per vehicle sits inside the copied figure. Its "saving" is the credit shortfall and Bryte's add-ons.

SANTAM CONTRADICTS ITSELF ON PAGE 71

Memoranda: "Public Liability EXCLUDES WORKAWAY." Three lines up, the excess table prices "Work away from the insured premises: 10% of claim, min R1,000 (max R25,000)." One of those is wrong. For a company whose only liability arises at other people's premises, the memo has to go and the limit has to rise. Same shape as Lomaen Medical and Vuyos Funerals. Get it in writing; R1m at R80/mo means R5m will still be cheap.

BRYTE'S TP LIMIT IS NOT WHAT THE SCHEDULE SAYS

Every item page prints Sub-Section B R5,000,000. The motor section wording on page 35 says: fire or explosion R1,000,000; any other event and the aggregate R2,500,000. The client believes they have R5m. Ask Bryte which applies; ask Santam to price R5m so the new policy matches what the client thinks they have today.

IN THE ROOM

"Look at your own schedule. Twenty-five vehicles, and on every one of them passenger liability says No. The Land Cruiser at the mine actually says 'Passenger Liability is excluded'. Your guards ride in those bakkies every shift. Santam puts R2.5 million on every vehicle for them, inside the premium. That is the reason to move. The R2,000 a month is a bonus."

TRACKING: 25-UNIT LEAD, THREE INSURERS SAY SO

Bryte wording (eff. 1 May 2023): compulsory on every Ford Ranger 2007+, every VW Polo, everything over R750,000, two on a Fortuner = 16 of 25; "Tracking 1: Required" printed on 11 with nothing fitted. Santam: condition on 4 vehicles; clause 1937 = 20% min R5,000 theft excess if security is not as declared. Hollard: no theft or hijack cover on 24 of 25 without a certificate. Nothing on any schedule shows a device.

INTERESTS SANTAM DOES NOT NOTE

ABSA (JN04CFGP), Wesbank × 6, Ford Credit, Phezulu Oil (Pty) Ltd on five Polos and the i10, the FJ's seller, and Multi Source Distribution Agency as co-insured and owner of both Vitz. Hollard notes the financiers only. Get all of them onto the Santam schedule before inception or a financed total loss pays the wrong party.

The Naked Truth

Six things that can turn this meeting. Number one is why the Santam quote in your bag is not yet the one you present.

1 ▶ Santam's public liability excludes work away.

Page 71 memoranda. A guarding company has no liability at 107 Trezona Avenue; it has it at the mine and at every client site. As quoted, the section is worth nothing to them.

DO Send it back today; work away in, R5m and R10m priced. Present the corrected quote, not this one.

2 ▶ The saving is R2,180, not R2,634.

Santam quoted accidental damage at R150,000 (current R360,000, two sites) and the Samsung S24 at R0 (current R21,000). Restoring both costs about R450/mo. Half of what is left is the add-ons.

SAY "As quoted it is R2,634. Once I put back two things they left out it is about R2,180. I would rather you hear that from me."

3 ▶ One Ranger is not comprehensive on the Santam quote.

MOT0003, JN04CFGP, ABSA-financed: cover type "Accidental Damage / Fire and Theft". Every other item is COMP. Nobody noticed because the premium looks normal.

DO Correct it in the same e-mail as the liability. Do not let it be found by the client.

4 ▶ Alpina earns R5,995 a month on this account and will counter.

Bryte's schedule discloses the commission. Expect a same-day re-quote with passenger liability added and the excess cut. That is fine: the client wins either way, and you made it happen.

SAY "If Bryte suddenly finds passenger liability and a R4,000 excess this week, ask them why it took a competing quote."

5 ▶ The claims history is a condition, and there is a known one.

Santam: "subject to confirmation of claims history." Bryte MOT0012 records a cash settlement on 3 Oct 2025 with proof of repair still outstanding. Undisclosed, that voids the new policy.

DO Get the 3-year claims record from Alpina in writing and send it to Santam before you quote a final number.

6 ▶ Nobody has ever quoted the guards themselves.

No group personal accident, no fidelity, no employers' liability on any of the three documents. A guard assaulted on duty, or a guard who steals from the client, is the everyday claim in this industry, and the client's own contracts usually demand both.

SAY "None of the three insurers covers your guards or a theft by one of them. I will price both. That is not part of today's decision; it should be part of next month's."

OPEN

"How do your guards get to site? In the bakkies. Look at your schedule: passenger liability, No, twenty-five times. If one of those rolls on the way to a post, there is nothing for the people in the back. That is what I came to fix."

THE OBJECTIONS YOU'LL HIT, AND THE WORDS THAT ANSWER THEM

"Two and a half thousand a month isn't worth the admin of moving."

- ✓ Agreed, and I am not asking you to move for it. I am asking you to move for R2.5 million of passenger cover on every vehicle, an excess of R4,000 instead of R10,000, and a wrongful arrest cover the other new quote dropped. The saving pays for the trackers.

"Hollard is cheaper than Santam."

- ✓ By R254 a month, and here is what that buys you: only the drivers named on the schedule are covered, third-party drops from R2.5 million to R1 million, no passenger cover, no wrongful arrest, and no theft cover on 24 of your vehicles until every tracker certificate is on file. For a security company with rotating drivers it does not work. Also, their premiums are your Bryte premiums copied to the cent.

"My broker says I've got R5 million third-party."

- ✓ Your schedule says R5 million on every vehicle. Page 35 of the same document says R2.5 million for any event and R1 million if there is a fire. I have asked Bryte which one applies, and I have asked Santam to give you the R5 million in writing so you actually have what you think you have.

"What about the R1 million public liability, is that enough?"

- ✓ No, and it is R1 million on all three. The difference is that Santam's, as quoted, excludes work at your clients' premises, and I have already sent it back. I will bring you R5 million and R10 million priced with work away included. That is the number that protects a guarding contract.

"Why do you need my claims history if Santam has quoted already?"

- ✓ Because the quote says "subject to confirmation of claims history", and your current schedule records a cash settlement on the Ranger KV57DMGP last October. If Santam finds it instead of being told, the policy is voidable. Ten minutes with Alpina and it is done.

"Give me the six registration numbers, the BMW's year, and your claims list from Alpina. And I will put trackers on all 25 so you never have a theft claim argued."

THE REFRAME THAT WINS THE ROOM

The client has an incumbent broker earning R6,000 a month who never once put passenger liability on a fleet that carries guards. You are not the cheaper quote. You are the first person who read the schedule. Lead with the guard in the back of the bakkie, and let the price follow.
